

The Nose Knows!

A Weekend of Training fun with Steve & Jen White!

October 25-26, 2008 * Yorba Linda, CA.

(Held on the beautiful grounds of Jump Start Dog Sports.)

Steve and Jen White are Coming to California!

This dynamic duo will help you learn to better appreciate your dog's powerful sense of smell! You'll learn how to train a reliable Search * Locate * Report sequence that is at the root of many fun nose work games you can enjoy with your dog. This seminar is a must for handlers looking to further their training relationship with their dogs, as well as for instructors looking for new training games to incorporate into classes.

Space is limited! Only 25 working spots (with dogs) and 40 auditor spots (no dogs) are available. Limited space ensures that each attendee receives significant attention from Steve & Jen during training sessions.

Requirements for Participating Dogs:

- Dogs that participate must be able to readily target a variety of items placed on the floor several feet from the handler. The stronger this behavior, the farther you'll progress throughout the weekend.
- Clicker savvy is a plus! Otherwise, at a minimum, your dog should clearly recognize and respond to your consistent verbal marker.
- Dogs must have a good understanding of basic obedience and be able to sit, lie down, stay and come to the handler when requested. Dogs must be tolerant of people and dogs as well as controllable when working in close proximity to others. Dogs must be able to be crated quietly when not working.
